Dear Givologists,

We are pleased to inform you that our organization has been recognized nationally for its work by making the GreatNonprofits Top-Rated List of Education Nonprofits.

Thank you to everyone who helped us win this honor by writing reviews of our organization. We deeply appreciate you taking the time to do so, as these reviews will be useful to us in many ways going forward.

You can read all of the reviews on GreatNonprofits. And, if you haven't had time to write a review yourself yet, but would like to do so, please proceed to the review form now.

Thank you again for your support.

Joyce

This year, Givology was chosen as the winner of the Intelius Social Entrepreneurship Award! From the pool of the top-100 student run enterprises eligible for the award from the Kairos Summit, we took the top prize in the category of "Social Impact".

Click to read the press release about the Intelius Award

About the award: The Intelius Entrepreneurship Awards recognize exceptional college student-founded companies in the following categories: social impact, technology, marketing, international, and sustainability. The student winners were selected from among 100 startups featured at the second annual Kairos Society Global Summit held at the New York Stock Exchange in April.

As we all head back to school, it's the perfect time to challenge yourself to make a difference. Our students really depend on your support! A simple letter to them makes a huge difference - to know that someone across the world believes that they can finish school.

The campaign asks participants to send a message to one student every week for 52 weeks! It only takes 10 minutes per week, but can change a child's life.

Dear Givologists,

We have partnered with GreatNonprofits, along with Guidestar, Little Kids Rock, and the National Association for the Education of Homeless Children and Youth to help raise visibility and support for education nonprofits by launching the 2010 Education Campaign. The campaign will recognize the work of top-rated nonprofits, whether it's through directly teaching individuals, offering education resources, or supplementing traditional teaching programs.

In 2009 over 450,000 people read reviews of thousands of nonprofits at www.GreatNonprofits.org - written by donors, volunteers, board members and by the general public. These reviews are also visible on GuideStar.

Whether you are a part of a nonprofit organization, a volunteer, a board member, a client served or a donor, we invite you to participate in the 2010 Education Campaign.

If we get 10+ reviews, then during the month of September, we will make the GreatNonprofits Top-Rated Education Nonprofits List!

We'd love if all of you - our volunteers, donors, and friends- can share in your own words how we serve community.

Please support us by visiting:

<http://bit.ly/educationp> to get started today.

The campaign deadline is September 31, 2010, so let's get started! Thank you so much for supporting us!
